DECLARATION OF PETER
MUELLER IN SUPPORT OF
PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR A
TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

2
3 I, Peter Mueller, HEREBY DECLARE AS FOLLOWS:

4 1. I am a resident of Lake Forest, Illinois. Except for the facts stated on 5 information and belief, all of facts set forth herein are known to me personally, and
6 if called as a witness, I could and would testify competently thereto.

7 2. My wife and I are avid supporters of the Olympic Games and have
8 attended the Games since 1994.

9 3. In December of 2007, I went onto the Internet to search for available
10 tickets to the 2008 Olympic opening ceremonies. I entered the terms "Beijing
11 Olympic Opening Ceremony" into the Google search engine. On the first results
12 page, I found the Website www.beijingticketing.com ("Beijing Ticketing"), which 13 claimed to sell tickets to the 2008 Olympics. The site claimed to be a "well-
14 known" and "trusted" ticket agent with "100% guaranteed" delivery. Attached as 15 Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of the Beijing Ticketing Website.

16 4. Beijing Ticketing appeared to me to be a source of legitimate tickets
17 for the 2008 Olympics. The site contained several seemingly official Olympic
18 logos, such as the red human figure logo designed specifically for the 2008 Beijing
19 Games.

20 5. The site claimed to have exactly the types of tickets that I was looking 21 for—tickets to the 2008 Olympic Opening Ceremony. The tickets were offered for 22 $1,850 per ticket.

23 6. On December 12, 2007, I began to place my order for two tickets to 24 the Opening Ceremony. I entered my contact information as well as my credit card
25 information in the spaces provided on the site. Beijing Ticketing did not ask for,
26 and I did not provide, my photograph or passport details.

27 7. However, after entering my credit card information into the site, I
28 decided not to complete the order and did not click on the "purchase" button at the

1 bottom of the page to enter the transaction. Instead, I attempted to cancel the order
2 by clicking on the red "X" stop button on the top of my web browser.

3 8. Even without clicking on "purchase" button, however, the order
4 appeared to process and shortly thereafter I received an email from Beijing
5 Ticketing stating, "Thank you for choosing Beijing Ticketing as Olympic Tickets
6 providers and booking tickets online" and informing me that my order was being
7 processed.

8 9. Just minutes after receiving this email, I emailed Beijing Ticketing
9 asking why my order was processed when the order was never completed. Beijing
10 Ticketing, however, never provided me with an explanation.

11 10. Before I proceeded to book my travel arrangements for Beijing, I sent 12 a series of emails to Beijing Ticketing on December 13, 2007 in an effort to 13 confirm that my order had gone through and that I would be receiving tickets to the 14 Opening Ceremonies. Beijing Ticketing responded that the tickets were 15 "guaranteed" and that they had them "in inventory." They also assured me that I
16 was "all set."

17 11. In fear that such assurances were false, I decided to look into the 18 validity of the information provided by Beijing Ticketing on their Website. The 19 contact information listed on the Website at
20 http://www.beijingticketing.com/contact_us.aspx provides an Arizona office
21 address. When I contacted individuals at this address, however, I found that that 22 company had no affiliation whatsoever with Beijing Ticketing.

23 12. In addition, Beijing Ticketing claims to be operated by a company
24 called XL & H Ltd., which the Website states is registered in Delaware. Upon
25 contacting the Delaware Division of Corporations, however, I was informed that
26 there was no record of this entity being formed in Delaware.

27 13. On December 17, 2007, I emailed Beijing Ticketing to inquire further 28 regarding XL & H Ltd.'s purported status as a registered company in Delaware. In

1 response, Beijing Ticketing wrote, "Instead of asking questions and going around
2 the houses and spending silly amounts of time emailing us and trying to catch out
3 after booking, why dont(sic) you just ask for your money back and for us to cancel
4 your order instead of trying to make youself(sic) a private detective and wasting
5 your time and ours."

6 14. I readily took Beijing Ticketing's advice and emailed them back that
7 same day to ask that they refund my money. I received no response to my email,
8 nor did I receive a response to my three subsequent emails similarly requesting that
9 Beijing Ticketing refund my money.

10 15. Attached as Exhibit B is a true and accurate copy of my email
11 correspondence with Beijing Ticketing.

12 16. On December 17, 2007 I also contacted my credit card company to 13 cancel payment to Beijing Ticketing.

14 17. I have attempted to contact Beijing Ticketing by phone at the number
15 provided on their Website, however, I have been unable to reach anyone with 16 whom to discuss this issue.

17 18. At this point, I have not nor do I expect to receive any tickets from 18 Beijing Ticketing.

19
20 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the 21 foregoing is true and correct.

23 Executed this 18th day of July, 2008 at Lake Forest, Illinois.

Subject: Fwd: Opening Ceremony tickets

In a message dated 12/13/2007 9:24:34 AM Central Standard Time, Pfmuelleroed writes:
 Sorry about that, This is basis of my concern about the Opening Ceremony tickets that I wish to purchase. BOCOG announcement on illegal resale of Beijing Olympic tickets Updated 2007-10-01

(BEIJING, September 30) – The Legal Affairs Department of the Organizing Committee for the Games of the XXIX Olympiad (BOCOG) issued an announcement on illegal resale transactions and fraud cases during the ticket sales for the Beijing 2008 Olympic Games Sunday.

According to the ticketing process, those who want to transfer tickets in a rightful way should pay for their tickets in advance. Also, tickets for the Opening and Closing Ceremonies are not transferable indiscriminately.

Those who wish to transfer tickets for the Opening and Closing Ceremonies will need to follow BOCOG's ticket transfer policy.

The transfer for competition tickets is feasible under the BOCOG's ticket policy.

Any resale of Olympic tickets for profit, however, is illegal. BOCOG will support the legal authorities to crack down on suspected illegal transactions and fraud cases through all necessary means.

People who engage in criminal activity will be subject to firm punishment according to the Criminal Law of the People's Republic of China.

Ticket holders who acquire tickets through an improper process shall bear the consequences by themselves.

BOCOG officials remind the public to buy and transfer tickets through the proper process and avoid unnecessary expenses.

We have been told that they will not be able to enforce or police what they say now you know as much as we do so the choice is now yours we would not be selling them if we thought there would be any problems.

FOR THE LAST TIME Regards BJ TICKETING

Please don't get me wrong, I just wanted to know if you were aware of this, and if the BOCOG enforces this where does it leave me.

Please provide the name of your Delaware Corporation, XL&H Ltd. is not a Delaware corp. I have filed a formal protest with my credit card carmer claiming fraud and have also done so with the State of Delaware.

Exclusive Leisure and Hospitality Limited is also not listed.

Good Morning, Instead of asking questions and going around the houses and spending silly amounts of time in emailing us and trying to catch out after booking, why dont you just ask for your money back and for us to cancel your order instead of trying to make yourself a private detective and wasting your time and ours.

This is my 4th request for the refund that you said I should ask for. How about it? If I don't receive it I'll contact the appropriate authorities both here in the US, State of Delaware corp fraud division and appropriate UK fraud/crime authorities.
